Located close to the banks of the Chao Phraya River the Grand Palace is the perfect example of an ancient Siamese court. Within the compound is the Temple of Emerald Buddha (Wat Pra Kaew), Lunch will be served in a Thai restaurant. Travel on the Chao Phraya River (The River of Kings) and on through the Klongs (canals) of Thonburi. You will have the chance to observe and photograph the serene family homes and temples along the waterways, which gave the city the name Venice of the East. You will also pay a visit to one of the most photographed sights in Bangkok, the Wat Arun. The majestic shrine has a pagoda of 76 m high. It is decorated with glazed ceramic pieces that reflect the rising sun and gave the temple its name.
- Pick up time from the hotel: 08:30 (if no other time announced by the guide)

Day 4: Tue - Dec 06, 2022 - Bangkok City Tour

- Breakfast at hotel.
- VISIT AGRICULTURE VILLAGE EXPLORER: KLONG MAHASSAWAD
- Experience a rural way of life in Nakhon Pathom where the local communities are involved in agro-tourism and the klongs are an essential part of daily life. The Agricultural Village is situated about one hour away from Bangkok in an area criss-crossed by waterways and canals. Climb into a wooden boat and travel the same way as the locals along the 153-year-old Klong Mahassawad. Glide along the canal past the stilted houses, large fishing nets and waterside temples. Then get back on the small boat and paddle to a lotus farm. Lotus flowers play an important part in Buddhist worship and are a popular temple flower. The flowers are grown in huge ponds covering around five acres and resemble Monet's incredible paintings of water lilies The next stop is at an organic farm. For the best glimpse of the surrounding rural lifestyle hop onto the back of a mini tractor. Drive through the tropical orchards and rice fields where all the produce is grown without the use of pesticides. There is the chance to snack on some of the organic seasonal fruits. Return to hotel
