DAY BY DAY ITINERARY:

DAY 01: Fri - Feb 16, 2024 - Depart from USA

Board your international flight from the USA to reach Morocco in the next day. 2 Meals will be served on board of the flight.

DAY 02: Sat - Feb 17, 2024 - Casablanca, Rabat, Fez (-+3h40min)

Our representative will be awaiting your arrival at Casablanca International Airport.

He will escort you to your private bus. Head along the coastline to Rabat.

Upon arrival, enjoy a short tour of the capital of Morocco, Rabat. You will enjoy a short walk of the Mohammed V Mausoleum. Mosaics rise from the marble floor to a ceiling of gold leaf and hand-carved cedar wood, while the three ground-floor tombs are carved from white onyx.

Next to the Mausoleum is Le Tour Hassan (the Hassan Tower), which is the towering minaret of the Hassan Mosque, which began construction in 1195.

The morning ends with a visit to the Kasbah of the Udayas, Rabat's medina. This is the fortification constructed on a mountain, overlooking the ocean. The Kasbah was constructed during the realm of the Almohads. Inside the Kasbah one can come across Andalusian gardens full of orange trees, flowers and palms.

Drive to Fes and check in to the hotel and relax.

Welcome Dinner at the hotel

Overnight at the hotel.

Meal: Dinner

DAY 03: Sun - Feb 18, 2024 - Fes, City Tour, Tasting Trail

Welcome to Fes, the most monumental of the Imperial Cities. The tour will include Bab Boujloud, Mellah, Jamaa Al-Karaouine the world's first established university, and One of Africa's largest mosques and possibly the oldest university in the world, this complex is the spiritual heart of Fez and Morocco itself, the Medersa Bouanania, the Chaouwara tanneries One of the city's most iconic sights (and smells), offering a unique window into the pungent, natural process of producing world-class leather using methods that have changed little since medieval times, clay workshops, artisan quarters, the souks of largest and oldest medina in Morocco and Nejaine and Medersa.

This Afternoon, head into the souks for a Culinary Tour. You will visit three different food souks allowing the chance to try traditional Moroccan street food including dried meats, milawi, harsha, briwats, soups, olives and more. At the honey souk, you'll be able to taste an array of delicious wild honeys, discuss their flavors and health-giving properties and find out why honey is so important in Moroccan cooking culture. You will visit a furnatchi where the water for the communal bathhouse hammam is also heated, and a 400 year old furan or communal oven and bakery.

Evening, you will head to a special place (International center for intercultural dialogue) where you will enjoy your Dinner under the melodies of Andalous music. Back to the hotel and overnight.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

DAY 4: Mon - Feb 19, 2024 - Fez, Volubilia, Meknes, Fez

After breakfast, Departure to Volubilis to explore the UNESCO-sponsored Roman ruins only about half of the 40-hectare site at Volubilis has been excavated. The better-known monuments are in the northern part of the site, furthest from the entrance in the south. The monuments of interest such as The Capitol, Basilica and 1300-sq-metre Forum are, typically, built on a high point. The Capitol, dedicated to the Triad of Jupiter, Juno and Minerva, dates back to AD 218 the Basilica and Forum lie immediately to its north.

After the tour of Volubilis, it's on to lunch at Volubilia. At this immaculate vineyard with its beautifully manicured gardens and traditional fountains, we linger for a Wine Tasting of their white and red wines. Then off to Meknes, this city has all the winding narrow medina streets and grand buildings that it warrants as an imperial city and one-time home of the Moroccan sultanate. Remnants of no less than three sets of fortifications, ingeniously incorporated into the city's road networks, make it clear how important this city once was. The king's tomb sits at the heart of what remains of the original imperial city, flanked by an almighty royal granary, the magnificent Bab el-Mansour.

After the tour of Meknes, drive back to Fez for dinner and overnight.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
